MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
FROM: Executive Secretary
SUBJECT: DCI Visit to DIA: Analyst Exchange

During a private meeting, General Williams expressed the concern that CIA analysts do not seem to be willing to participate in a CIA/DIA analyst exchange program. He said he did not particularly care if the CIA analyst was the same grade or expertise as the person provided by DIA; i.e. he would consider a China analyst in exchange for a Soviet analyst. The Director indicated that "we owe you somebody," and made it clear someone would be forthcoming.
